Jurisdiction

This case involves a dispute over federal tax collection. The federal court has jurisdiction of federal tax controversies. The plaintiff resides in the Pierce County, State of Washington.

Statement of Claims

1. The Department of the Treasury via The Internal Revenue Service has unlawfully imposed a lien against the petitioner, Bobby J. Caudill, for liability of income taxes, which have not been assessed against him for fifteen percent of his monthly social security benefits since January 2005, contrary to 26 USCS § 6201, 26 USCS § 6203, 26 USCS § 6330, and 26 USCS § 6331

Relief

1. Since the law requires an assessment of liability for taxes prior to the imposition of liens, levies, or collection for said liability, and there has been no assessment of such liability, the imposition of the lien for taxes not assessed is contrary to law, and an injunction against the lien for liability of taxes not assessed against Bobby J. Caudill by the Department of the Treasury via The Internal Revenue Service is necessary to enjoin the lien against Bobby J. Caudill for all such liability not assessed against Bobby J. Caudill.
2. Reimbursement of all monies unlawfully levied against Bobby Caudill since January 2005 in the amount of $25,000, plus the cost of the action.
3. General and Special Damages for unlawful collection of taxes according to the law.
